THE SPIRIT OF REM

It has often been said, “Home is where the heart is.” The Racial Ethnic Multicultural Network (REM) is home for me and many of my colleagues. It is where I discovered my call into professional ministry. REM provided a place or “home” if you will, where my identity as an African-American participating in the CPE process was affirmed, not just in words, but in real, genuine, and authentic relationships.

REM is a powerful driving force behind my almost thirty year investment in ACPE. REM has become a respected, formidable presence in ACPE and has made a significant contribution in recruitment and development of racial, ethnic and multicultural persons in CPE.

I and the REM Planning Team are excited about the opportunity to host this national conference in the Richmond community and also welcome you to experience the “Spirit of REM.”

Dr. Harry E. Simmons
Conference Convener
